UTTERLY UNRIVALLED. UTTERLY UNRIVALLED.

The above speaks for itself. From strict inquiry it appears that the beaefit from using Keating's Cough Lorenges is understated. The operation was a specially severe one and was performed by the specialist, Dr. H. T. Butlin, of St. Bartholomew's Hospital. Since the operation the only means of relief is the use of these Lorenges. So successful are they that one affords immediate benefit, although from the nature of the case the throat irritation is intense.

THE death of Mr B. Hoppius, although hourly expected for the last day or two, will be sincerely regretted by his many friends in Hongkong and the Far-East. Deceased has been gradually sinking under an attack of cancer for some: time, and he died this afternoon about four o'clock. Heinrich Hoppins, senior partner in the firm of Mesers Siemssen and Cc., had been a resident in this part of the world for over thirty years and had just completed his fifty-fourth year last month. He had occupied nearly every commercial position in Hongkong open to a non-British merchant during the twenty-five years he Co.; and in every such position he was well ness and good business qualities. One of the senior Stewards of the Hongkong Jockey Club, he has for many years course, and every one will readily admit that his ideal of racing was of the highest and purest, and of the good old, healthy kind. As a friend Mr Hoppius will long be remembered for his sterling qualities, which endeared him to a large circle. His genial, good-hearted disposition made him a general favourite; and many residents will preserve kindly recollections of good deeds done and kindly words said. Indeed, Mr Hoppius was perhaps the most popular German citizen of Hongkong who has ever resided here, and he formed a sort of genial connecting link between the British community and his own nationals. Men of the Hoppius stamp are not to be met with every day, and his death cames a blank which will not be easy filled up.

standard. The entertainment was brought to a close by the Grand Military Spectacle representing scenes is the China-Japan war, but more particularly the engagement at Pingyang. In the 'Storming of the Cattle,' the . Taking of the Forts,' etc., the Chinese army was victorious, to the great delight of the large assembly of Chinese : in fact, some of them got quite excited, and even stood upon their mats, and wanted the fort captured over again. Mr J. Aldean as the War Correspondent' was immensely funny. and Mr Geo. Harmston's wholesale slaughter of the Japaness army met with unbounded approval from the Chinese. The Battle of Pingyang' was fought at the motines this afternoon, and will continue to be fought every evening until further notice. In alt probability the Circus will leave for Manila by the ' Yuensang' next week, so we advise those who have not yet seen it not to miss the opportunity.

TELEGRAMS.

[SUPPLIED TO THE 'CHINA MAIL.']

(Via Southern Line.) THE CHINA JAPAN WAR.

London, 11th November, 1894. It is reported in Shanghai that the Japanese Government, before entertaining any proposals for peace, will insist on the surrender of the Chinese officials who offered a reward for Japanese heads during the progress of the war.

THE ARMENIAN ATROOTTIES. The question of the joint action of the Powers concerning the recent Armonian atrocities is suspended, the Powers being nclined to swait further particulars.

THE CERMAN SOCIALISTS.

The Liberal papers prophesy a most emphatic rejection of Prince Hohenlohe's proposal to presecute the Socialists who refused to rise when the Emperor was cheered at the opening of the Reichstag.

THE CHINESE LOAN.

The new Chinese loan has collapsed in London, the firm of Armstrong which was issuing it having withdrawn, because China was seeking to raise other loans elsewhere at a bigher rate of interest.

ASSEMBLING OF PARLIAMENT. Parliament has been summoned to assemble in February.

> (From Le Courrier d' Haiphong.) GROVER CLEVELAND AS PEACEMAKER.

Paris, Dec. 4. In his Message, President Cleveland declares that he will take every opportunity to bring about an amicable arrangement between China and Japan.

> THE KAISER TO SQUELOH SOCIALISM.

Paris, Dec. 5.

Emperor William, in his opening speech to the Reichstag, announced his intenproceed against Socialism. He is more and more confident that the peace of Europe will be maintained. As on the occasion of the death of President Carnot, Germany has taken advantage of the death of the Czar to give evidence of her sympathy with other nations, thus proving the solidarity of human sentiment and the pacific wishes of all races.
